Scott Smith to lead Adams Harris in Chicago

Chicago, IL (October 18, 2010) – The Board of Directors at Adams Harris have recently announced Scott Smith as Managing Director of the Chicago office.

Smith is a 23 year veteran of Arthur Andersen, where he served for 10 years as an Audit Partner. Since 2002, he has lead engagements for F2 Intelligence Group as both the Director of Corporate Accounts and the Managing Director for Private Equity; focusing on projects in corporate strategy, acquisitions, and business development.

“Scott will take our Chicago team to the next level with his proven leadership and delivery capabilities,” said Rob Dennison, CEO and Co-Founder of Adams Harris. “Scott’s passion for the business and solid industry experience will be a great asset for Adams Harris.”

Smith serves as a Board Member and Audit Committee Chairman for ProUroCare Medial. He graduated Summa Cum Laude from Millikin University and is both a Certified Public Accountant and Certified Management Accountant. Smith resides in Wilmette.
