Adams Harris announces Dennison promotion to CEO

October 9, 2007 (Chicago, IL) – Adams Harris, Inc., the accounting, internal audit, tax, and technology services firm headquartered in Chicago, announced today that Rob Dennison has been promoted to President and Chief Executive Officer.

“I am pleased to announce that Rob Dennison has been promoted to CEO of the firm,” said Mike Harris, co-founder and Chairman of Adams Harris. “Rob and I started the firm in early 2006 and he has done a great job of getting the firm launched and opening our first three offices,” added Harris. The firm is funded by Chicago-based Adams Street Partners, one of the largest private equity investors in the world.

Harris is an experienced entrepreneur with significant success in start-up and high growth companies. Adams Harris is his fifth professional services start-up since 1995. He is best known as the founder and former CEO of Jefferson Wells, which was acquired by Manpower in 2001. He also started the Capital H Group in 2001, and co-founded both SilverTrain and the Novo Group where he continues to be active and serves on the Board of Directors. Adams Street Partners and Harris have worked together before in establishing and building a company from inception when they funded Jefferson Wells in early 1996.

Dennison is also a former Jefferson Wells executive with significant experience in growing a service company. “I am pleased with how our firm is being received in the marketplace. The simple and old school approach of hiring excellent people to help clients as needed is working well,” said Dennison. “We have 70 people in the firm today and expect to at least double that number within the next six months,” added Dennison. Dennison was formerly a senior operating executive at Jefferson Wells and has several years of internal audit leadership experience. Both Harris and Dennison are CPAs who started their careers within international public accounting firms.

Adams Harris provides a range of internal audit, accounting and finance, corporate tax and technology audit and control services. It helps clients with special projects, interim staff and management needs, outsourcing and co-sourcing, consulting and training. For all of its service offerings, Adams Harris offers affordable rates with flexible terms of engagement. Adams Harris is not a CPA firm.
