Adams Harris to exhibit at The Institute of Internal Auditors 2011 General Audit Management Conference

Chicago, IL (February 25, 2011) – Adams Harris will exhibit at The Institute of Internal Auditors 2011 General Audit Management Conference (GAM). The GAM Conference will be held on March 14-16, 2011 in Las Vegas.

GAM is the premiere opportunity for chief audit executives (CAEs), audit directors, and audit leaders to network with peers, benchmark against best practices, and tap into the knowledge of the profession's highest level practitioners. Now in its 32nd year, GAM will once again live up to its well-deserved reputation as "the essential experience for CAEs" by offering an impressive, hand-picked program that will refocus audit professionals or teams on demonstrating and reinforcing internal auditing's value. GAM 2011 features the most impressive and relevant sessions that The IIA has ever assembled. The conference program features more than 25 CAEs – 15 from Fortune 500 organizations – who are excited about sharing their energy and experiences with attendees. This year's tracks include: fraud; risk management; governance - creating and leveraging effective partnerships; auditing smarter, better, and faster; and being a catalyst for organizational change.
